

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Proclamation

SENIOR DAY

MAY 29, 2003

WHEREAS, one of our most precious resources is our senior citizens; and

WHEREAS, during the month of May, the District of Columbia's Office on Aging, is planning various events to celebrate the vitality of the 92,000 senior residents who reside in this city; and

WHEREAS, most senior citizens have worked for numerous years and have helped to shape our communities and through their strength and character, have also been a positive influence on our youth; and

WHEREAS, today, we are observing the 39th Annual Senior Citizens' Day to highlight the contributions of our senior citizens and older Washingtonians who will be showcasing their talents;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, THE MAYOR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, do hereby proclaim May 29, 2003, as "SENIOR DAY" in Washington, D.C., and call upon all the residents of this great city to join me in saluting our older citizens, by recognizing their vitality, talent and dedication to our youth, as well as their many contributions to our capital city.

Anthony A. Williams

Anthony A. Williams
Mayor, District of Columbia